In a nutshell:

The family property of Guy and Collette Vignoli lies in the heart of Armagnac country to the south of Bordeaux and, as fashions have moved away from spirits, they have increased their range of still wines, taking advantage of the grapes traditionally used for Armagnac.

Viticulture:

The fruit comes from several plots equating to 64 hectares, the average age of the vines is 20 years. All of the vineyards are farmed to high sustainable standards with HVE Level 3 certification.
Classification: Conventional
Harvesting Method: Machine

Vinification:

After a thorough sorting of the grapes, it is quickly transferred to vats to reduce the risk of oxidation before skin contact maceration. Pressing and fermentation occurs at low temperatures. Before bottling the wine is sterile filtered. Average annual production is 200,000 bottles.
PH 3.4 | TA 4 | RS 0.5 | SO2 96mg/l (Total)
