Domaine de Laguille Ugni Blanc / Colombard, Côtes de Gascogne (Screwcap closure) 2024

White | France | Regional France | 11.5% | Dry, crisp white

CODE: LG120243

Vibrantly fresh and juicy with a hint of currant leaf and a lovely crisp bite of acidity. Thanks to its refreshingly moderate alcohol, this is the perfect aperitif wine and a great value wine to have to hand for guests – expected or unexpected!

Tasting Notes

Guy and Collette Vignoli's Domaine de Laguille lies in the heart of Armagnac country to the south of Bordeaux and, as fashions have moved away from spirits, they have repurposed their grapes to make some delicious light wines. Their white is a blend of Ugni Blanc and Colombard and don't miss their eminently quaffable, highly drinkable Rouge de Plaisir Merlot, also at a brilliant price.
