Domaine de Laguille Merlot, Côtes de Gascogne 2024

Red | France | Regional France | 12.5% | Lighter, fruitier red

CODE: LG170243

We have long been fans of Laguille's succulently juicy Merlot, now in its new Burgundy shaped bottle with a smart new label and a cork rather than screwcap. There is no denying its deliciously brambly bright fruit with a lovely herby bite – a real triumph.

Tasting Notes

Being relatively close to Bordeaux, the temptation for some is to throw lashings of oak at their Merlot in the hope that it might look a bit like Pomerol. For Guy Vignoli, there is no such temptation as he wants to make an eminently quaffable, highly drinkable – for that is the key – juicy red wine. In his Merlot 'rouge de plaisir' he does exactly that.
