Waipara West Two Terrace Pinot Noir (Screwcap closure) 2020

Red | New Zealand | Waipara | 14% | Medium-bodied red | Screw cap
100% Pinot Noir

In a nutshell:

New Zealand Pinot Noir falls into two camps there are those which are very vegetal in style, almost feeling like they have been dosed up with Sauvignon Blanc, and those which give Burgundy a run.

Viticulture:

The selection comes from two plots equating to eight acres, both planted on limestone, clay soils. The average age of the vines is 24 years.
Classification: Conventional
Harvesting Method: Manual

Vinification:

Vinification occurs in small batch open ferments; it then spends 10 months in barrel and 6 months in tank. Before bottling it undergoes a very light filtration.
