Their wines are consistently delicious, and this Picpoul is no exception, offering enticing aromas of ripe peach and white flowers, beautifully balanced by a lively streak of refreshing acidity.

Tasting Notes

Picpoul has ridden the waves of popularity, going from unknown to ubiquitous in a very short space of time. Les Vignerons de Florensac make one of the best; their group is made up of 260 small farmers with some of the oldest vines in the region who bring their fruit to be processed by the cellar.
