

La Picossa Garnatxa Blanca, Roqueta Origen, Terra Alta 2025

White | Spain | 12% | Dry, fruity white

CODE: LP500253

100% Grenache Blanc, fermented at low temperatures in stainless steel. Fresh and floral on the nose, with notes of sappy white pear and bright white stone fruit which follow through on to the palate, easy going at first before opening up on swirling to reveal lightly tropical notes with a waxy green fruit hint. This lovely wine is racy and sapid with a mouthwatering, mineral finish – perfection!

"A really well-priced, lush rich-textured white you might possibly be able to get your hands on in time for our Spanish tasting on Sunday evening." Fiona Beckett

Tasting Notes

Tucked away in the southern corner of Catalunya, in the hills between Tarragona and Zaragoza, the D.O. Terra Alta specialises in Garnatxa (Grenache). Whilst the red version is found all over Spain and southern France, here the rarer Garnatxa Blanca has really made its home, enjoying the cooler temperatures from the altitude (up to 500m) and the poor limestone-based soils. Winemaker Ramon Roqueta Segalés named the wines after La Picossa, the peak which separates Terra Alta from the River Ebro, a tribute to Pablo Picasso who lived there in 1909.
