Tasting Notes:

A Random Shot, in Australian speak, is a long shot, an unexpected outcome – and for Farmer's Leap their Random Shot is the wine you have to hand when someone drops in unannounced and you need something instantly; "a Random Shot wine is always best shared with friends, capturing a moment no one could plan. This is a wine to share over an unexpected catch up, an impromptu dinner or a night of endless laughs." Some of the Cabernet spends a short time in French oak to give a toasty grilled top note.
